The records show that the question of starting a shandy at Viswanathapura was considered on previous occasion but it was given up as there was a complaint in protest against the proposal from the Devanhalli Taluk Boards Committee.

It is now seen that a notice was published on 15/6/1942 calling for objections to the proposal to start a shandy at Viswanathapur. It is reported that

The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the residents of Viswanathapura, and other neighbouring villages submitted a petition requesting the opening of a shandy at Viswanatha Devanahalli Taluk. On enquiry and on investigation, it i found that there are no shandies within a radius of 5 miles from Viswanathapur and that the nearest shandies are those Devanahalli and Dodballapur both of which are about 7 miles from Viswanathapur. This village is situated on Dodball Devanahalli road and is in the midst of 35 to 40 thriving villages; as such there is really a need for a shandy at th place. The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District has also recommended the establishment of a shandy at the place

In view of the above facts, the Board, in their meeting held on 23rd May 1942, resolved that the shandy may be established.

Objections were called for from the Public in the mat no objections were received.

I send herewith a copy of the resolution of the Board together with the connected file and to request that the sanction of Government may kindly be accorded for the openi of the shandy at Viswanathapur and to levy fees there as
